

I am against this petition. I believe that it is important to retain the requirement for Morse code testing for an amateur radio operator license.